POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Associate Teacher

Saint Ann's School, an independent, non-sectarian day school enrolling approximately 1085 students in Pre-Kindergarten through High School, seeks an Associate Teacher.

About Saint Ann's School

Saint Ann's School is a leading independent not for profit school located in Brooklyn Heights, New York. Since its founding in 1965, Saint Ann's has embraced a commitment to education for its own sake, oriented to the capacities of each individual student, free of the encumbrances of formal grading, prizes, and rankings. At the same time, we are unabashedly committed to excellence in all that we do. The lives of our graduates speak powerfully to the potential of an education based on these principles to ignite a passion for learning and to sustain creative energy in every field of endeavor. We accomplish this by offering talented students instruction shaped by creative and dedicated faculty, forming a true community of learners from pre-Kindergarten through high school.

Position Responsibilities

In preschool through third grade, associate teachers work with head teachers in classrooms of twenty students. In addition to helping their head teacher to run the classroom (leading meetings and activities, assisting with the social and emotional crises of the under-ten set, reading to and reading with the students, cutting, pasting, gluing, refereeing, encouraging), associates are responsible for their own reading group and have the opportunity in the spring to design and teach a curriculum of their choosing. We seek the curious, the artistic, the passionate. We offer generous grants for educational assistance (up to $10,000/year). Teaching experience is not necessary, but experience working with children is a plus. We are eager to meet candidates who love children and the written word. Doubters and naysayers need not apply.
