

SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: PHYSICAL EDUCATION (RECREATIONAL ARTS) TEACHER AND COACH

Saint Ann's School is a non-sectarian K-12 independent school in Brooklyn, NY looking for a full-time PE (called recreational arts at Saint Ann's) teacher and coach. A school that exists to serve talented, intellectually accomplished, and curious students, we seek faculty who are passionate about their subject and able to convey both information and a love of learning to children of a variety of ages. We seek a teacher who is excited to teach primarily at the middle school level (4th-8th grade). The position may include teaching lower school and high school classes as well. Since our classes are often team-taught, we are looking for someone with strong cooperative skills who is willing to share their enthusiasm with colleagues and students. The position includes a two-season coaching responsibility. We are anticipating openings in basketball, soccer, volleyball, baseball and softball for either high school or middle school interscholastic teams. Through our interscholastic sports program we compete in several independent school leagues in New York City.

Our teachers are committed to working with students from different backgrounds and must be invested in the school's ongoing DEI work. At Saint Ann's School, we do not give grades or use any other form of comparative metric to evaluate students. Instead, the recreational arts teachers and coaches write comprehensive reports on each student's progress for their recreational arts electives and at the conclusion of the high school interscholastic athletic season– we do not write reports for non-elective recreational arts classes. This is a major undertaking and not for a reluctant writer, but we find our written reports more rewarding and satisfying than giving grades.
