

SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Girls' Gymnastics Coach - Varsity & Middle School (grades 5-8)

Saint Ann's seeks an experienced coach for the winter (high school varsity) and spring (middle school) seasons of gymnastics. Qualified candidates must have previous coaching or competitive experience, and be able to spot skills on floor, uneven bars, vaulting, and balance beam. Choreography experience is strongly preferred.

The Saint Ann's high school varsity team will begin practices in early November, with three–four meets expected to take place in the month of January. The season concludes in early February. Middle school practices will have a slight overlap, depending on the number of registrants. The middle school season will begin in January and run through late April or early May, with three–four intrasquad meets toward the end of the season.

- Practices for high school varsity are expected to run four–five days per week after school (generally for 90 minutes between 3:30–6:30 p.m. depending on student schedules), with the potential for one practice at 7:00 a.m. each week.
- Middle school practices are expected to run five days per week after school (generally for 90 minutes between 2:45–6:00 p.m. depending on student schedules).

ABOUT SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

Since its founding in 1965, Saint Ann's has embraced a commitment to education for its own sake, oriented to the capacities of each individual student and free of the encumbrances of formal grading, prizes, and rankings. At the same time, we are unabashedly committed to excellence in all that we do. With a faculty and staff numbering close to 400, and nearly 1100 students, Saint Ann's is among the largest and most selective independent schools in New York City. The lives of our graduates speak powerfully to the potential of an education based on these principles to ignite a love of learning and sustain creative energy in every field of endeavor. We accomplish this by bringing together talented teachers with creative and motivated students. Saint Ann's is committed to centering anti-racism in the life of the school. Seeking to create a community rooted in trust and equity, we invite each other to take risks, pursue knowledge, and celebrate growth.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Upholding the Saint Ann's mission statement
- Communicating effectively with parents/guardians, players, athletic directors, athletic trainers, and school administration
- Assisting and/or leading practices of up to 14 participants through warm-ups, skill development, and conditioning

PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS

- Maintain certification in CPR/AED, First Aid, USA Gymnastics Safety & Risk Management, and Head Injury Management
- Ability to safely and competently spot and direct various gymnastics skills on each of the four women's disciplines
- Demonstrate an understanding of the purpose and value of physical fitness and wellness
- Demonstrate an accurate, current knowledge of various movement concepts and sport-specific skills and strategies as well as health-related fitness concepts
- A strong passion for sharing your love of movement and physical activity with students of all ages is essential
- Incorporate a variety of teaching methods to accommodate multiple learning styles
- Use positive motivation to create a safe, nurturing, and supportive environment which fosters self-esteem
- Create a joyful, stimulating learning experience in which to engage the students
- Strong planning and organizational skills
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion

COMPENSATION

This is a part-time exempt faculty position position with no benefits. Salary range of $8,000–$10,000, depending on experience, for coaching both teams.

TO APPLY

Interested candidates should submit their cover letter and resume using this link. Candidates who identify as members of historically underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Position availability is dependent on registration; if athlete registration numbers are too low to field a team, the program will not run during its respective season. The coaching stipend will be adjusted accordingly. Anticipated start date of early November. Position is open until filled.
