

SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Part-time Middle School Music Technology Teacher

We are seeking a dynamic, passionate, curious and innovative part-time Middle School Music Technology Teacher to join our vibrant music department. The ideal candidate will inspire students through hands-on music creation, foster foundational musicianship, and guide learners in developing technical and creative skills using modern music production tools and keyboard instruction. We are looking for a flexible, organized, and enthusiastic teacher who thrives in an independent school setting, values creativity and individuality, and is committed to fostering an inclusive and supportive learning environment.

ABOUT SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

Since its founding in 1965, Saint Ann's has embraced a commitment to education for its own sake, oriented to the capacities of each individual student and free of the encumbrances of formal grading, prizes, and rankings. At the same time, we are unabashedly committed to excellence in all that we do. With a faculty and staff numbering close to 400, and approximately 1100 students, Saint Ann's is among the largest and most selective independent schools in New York City. The lives of our graduates speak powerfully to the potential of an education based on these principles to ignite a love of learning and sustain creative energy in every field of endeavor. We accomplish this by bringing together talented teachers with creative and motivated students. Saint Ann's is committed to centering anti-racism in the life of the school. Seeking to create a community rooted in trust and equity, we invite each other to take risks, pursue knowledge, and celebrate growth.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Foster a classroom environment that encourages creativity, collaboration, and a lasting appreciation for music through performance-based learning.
- Design and teach music technology courses that integrate composition, production, creative exploration, and performance using digital audio workstations (DAWs).

- Introduce students to foundational compositional techniques and digital music-making processes within genres such as hip hop, R&B, pop, and electronic music.
- Develop students' music literacy, including note-reading, listening skills, ear training, and music vocabulary.
- Build students' foundational keyboard skills
- Facilitate deeper musical analysis, critical listening, and discussion of music in cultural and real-world contexts.
- Assist in maintaining the music and computers lab, software licensing, and the associated equipment in the room.
- Participate in weekly department meetings and other faculty meetings scheduled on the school calendar.
- Communicate professionally and compassionately with every member of the community: students, families, and colleagues alike.
- Write comprehensive narrative reports for each child twice a year.
- Attend and participate in parent/teacher conferences.

PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Music Education, Music Technology, or a related field.
- Passion for integrating technology into music education.
- Strong understanding of contemporary music genres and their production techniques.
- Proficiency in music production software (e.g., DAWs, Logic Pro X, Ableton Live, Soundtrap) and hardware, such as MIDI controllers, audio interfaces, and microphones.
- Ability to teach composition, basic keyboarding/piano skills, music theory, and ear training in an engaging and accessible manner.
- Teaching experience, preferably with middle school students.
- Strong planning and organizational skills.
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Strong interpersonal skills; empathy, flexibility, and sense of humor.
- Ability to thrive in an environment with a great deal of independence, while also embracing collaboration.
- Ability to share teaching space with other faculty and staff.

COMPENSATION

This is a part time, exempt position with a competitive compensation package including benefits. Annualized salary range of $30,000–$60,000 commensurate with education and experience.
