

SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

Get to Know Saint Ann's

You're invited to a gathering for prospective BIPOC families

Tuesday, May 12 | 6:30–8:30 p.m.

Saint Ann's School

129 Pierrepont Street, Ettl Lobby, Brooklyn

Please join Head of School Kenyatte Reid and Director of Institutional Diversity & Belonging Stacey Wright for an evening of conversation and connection to learn about the philosophy, program, and community of Saint Ann's School. Gather with other BIPOC families, along with current students, alumni, parents/guardians, administrators, and faculty to enjoy refreshments and hear about Saint Ann's through the lens of the BIPOC experience.

Click here to register. There is no fee to attend. (Please note: While the program will be geared towards an adult audience, we will have some quiet activity options available should you need to bring your child along.)

If you have questions, please email Diana Lomask in the Office of Admission at dlomask@saintannsny.org.

