SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Boys Basketball Head Coach - Junior Varsity (High School - Seasonal)

Saint Ann's School seeks an experienced, part-time coach for our boys junior varsity basketball team. This is a seasonal position running approximately November 2, 2026 through February 26, 2027.

The junior varsity team will begin practices in early November, with 18 games currently on their schedule. The current schedule is subject to change, and additional playoff games will be added depending on team success.

Practices for the team are expected to run 4-5 days per week for 60-90 minutes. Practices usually begin at 3:30 p.m. (depending on student schedules), with the potential for one practice at 7:00 a.m. each week.

Qualified candidates must have previous coaching or competitive experience, be able to teach basketball concepts at beginner and intermediate levels, and must be available for all games and practices on the schedule.

ABOUT SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

Since its founding in 1965, Saint Ann's has embraced a commitment to education for its own sake, oriented to the capacities of each individual student and free of the encumbrances of formal grading, prizes, and rankings. At the same time, we are unabashedly committed to excellence in all that we do. With a faculty and staff numbering close to 400, and approximately 1100 students, Saint Ann's is among the largest and most selective independent schools in New York City. The lives of our graduates speak powerfully to the potential of an education based on these principles to ignite a love of learning and sustain creative energy in every field of endeavor. We accomplish this by bringing together talented teachers with creative and motivated students. Saint Ann's is committed to centering anti-racism in the life of the school. Seeking to create a community rooted in trust and equity, we invite each other to take risks, pursue knowledge, and celebrate growth.
