

SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Certified Athletic Trainer — Per Diem

Saint Ann's School is a non-sectarian independent school in Brooklyn, New York serving students in Preschool through 12th grade. We are looking for a per-diem Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC) to support games. This coverage will help ensure consistent athletic training services and appropriate student-athlete support during scheduled athletic activities. We seek a certified athletic trainer who is excited to maintain the health and well-being of the students and is committed to working with students and colleagues from different backgrounds. The ATC must be invested in the school's ongoing Institutional Diversity and Belonging work. We are looking for someone who is flexible, has strong cooperative skills, and who is willing to share their enthusiasm with colleagues and students. Through our interscholastic sports program we compete in several independent school leagues in New York City.

ABOUT SAINT ANN'S SCHOOL

Since its founding in 1965, Saint Ann's has embraced a commitment to education for its own sake, oriented to the capacities of each individual student and free of the encumbrances of formal grading, prizes, and rankings. At the same time, we are unabashedly committed to excellence in all that we do. With a faculty and staff numbering close to 400, and approximately 1100 students, Saint Ann's is among the largest and most selective independent schools in New York City. The lives of our graduates speak powerfully to the potential of an education based on these principles to ignite a love of learning and sustain creative energy in every field of endeavor. We accomplish this by bringing together talented teachers with creative and motivated students. Saint Ann's is committed to centering anti-racism in the life of the school. Seeking to create a community rooted in trust and equity, we invite each other to take risks, pursue knowledge, and celebrate growth.
